Good Morning Hanyu

I apologise for my delay in responding, I was unwell yesterday.

I acknowledge that you have not agreed to an extension of time for the Internal Review relating to this application.

Please be advised that your application is continuing to be processed and you will be provided with a Notice of Decision in relation to this application.

Your external review rights are available to you, should you wish to pursue this avenue:

You have a right to request an external review with the Office of the Information Commissioner, as you have not been provided with a Notice of Decision within the permitted period. A complaint must be lodged with the Information Commissioner within 60 calendar days, and must:

- be in writing;
- give particulars of the decision to which the complaint relates; and
- give an address in Australia to which notices under the FOI Act can be sent.

There is no lodgement fee for an application for external review nor are there any charges associated with such a request.

You can lodge an external review request by post, addressed to

Office of the Information Commissioner
Albert Facey House
469 Wellington Street
PERTH WA 6000

Please contact the Office of the Information Commissioner on \(08\) 6551 788865517888) or by email at info@oic.wa.gov.au should you have any queries or require further information concerning your review rights.

If you have any questions or require further clarification, please don't hesitate to contact me on 6552 1829 or foi@dpird.wa.gov.au.

Thank you
Kind Regards

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of DPIRD. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognise the sender and know the content is safe.

Dear Courtney,

Thank you for your email.

As noted in my email of 27 February 2026, I agreed to a short extension of the internal review due date to 6 March 2026 and stated that I did not agree to any further extensions beyond that date.

Given the length of time that FOI2025-059 has already been on foot (since October 2025), and the multiple extensions already granted, I do not agree to any further extension of time for the internal review.

For the avoidance of doubt, my refusal of a further extension does not prevent DPIRD from continuing to process the internal review and issuing a notice of decision. On the contrary, I expect the internal review decision to be finalised and provided as soon as reasonably practicable.

Kind regards,

Hanyu Liu

OFFICIAL

Good Morning Hanyu

I refer to your request for an internal review for your FOI application submitted to the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD), as a decision was not provided to you within the permitted period.

I respectfully request a further extension of time to Thursday 12 March 2026 in order to finalise the Application and provide you with a Notice of decision.

Could you kindly confirm if you are agreeable to this extension?

Kind Regards

Dear Courtney,

I note that the statutory due date for the internal review decision is 3 March 2026.

In the interests of allowing the review to be properly finalised, I agree to the requested short extension to 6 March 2026.

I do not agree to any further extensions beyond that date.

Kind regards,

Hanyu Liu

Good Afternoon Hanyu

I refer to your request for an internal review for your FOI application submitted to the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD), as a decision was not provided to you within the permitted period.

The current due date for providing an internal review decision is Tuesday 3 March 2026.

I respectfully request an extension of time to Friday 6 March 2026 in order to finalise the Application and provide you with a Notice of decision.

Please be assured that we are prioritising your Application. I understand this is frustrating, but we are working to process your Application as quickly as possible. Our small team is currently managing a high volume of complex matters which has resulted in delays across multiple Applications.

Could you kindly confirm if you are agreeable to this extension?

Kind Regards
